Summary of reasons
for classification:

The DVD identified as Films for New Zealand Screening Use This Copy!!!! No Skips is classified as: Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

The DVD contains Australian short films, several of which feature a variety of extreme behaviour. One in particular, Final Faeces, features drug use, defecation, verbal references to sexual violence, extreme violence, and aberrant sexual behaviour. While the treatment of this material is unrealistic and fairly juvenile, which lowers its impact overall, it is nonetheless more suited to adult audiences who can place it within its proper context of a short amateur film with designs on offending people generally. Children and younger persons are likely to be disturbed by the range of violent material, both in this film and in other short films, which tends towards the excessive. Sexual material, while implied, is also inappropriate for children and younger persons who lack the maturity and development to deal with adult forms of sexual behaviour.

The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. An age restriction of 16 years will interfere with the freedom of expression as set out in Section 14 of the Bill of Rights. This limitation is demonstrably justified, however, given the likely injury to the public good from the publication's potential to negatively influence children and younger persons.
